If there's one medical treatment that proponents of "alternative medicine" love to hate, it's chemotherapy. Rants against "poisoning" are a regular staple on "alternative health" websites, usually coupled with insinuations or outright accusations that the only reason oncologists administer chemotherapy is because of the "cancer industrial complex" in which big pharma ...

Creationism is the religious belief that nature, and aspects such as the universe, Earth, life, and humans, originated with supernatural acts of divine creation. In its broadest sense, creationism includes a continuum of religious views, which vary in their acceptance or rejection of scientific explanations for the origin and development of natural phenomena such as evolution.

Here is our analysis of these tweets: "Science and faith aren't at odds." This is the usual sort of statement you hear from people like those at BioLogos—who equate the word science with big bang, evolution, and millions of years. The use of this phrase in the tweet is an enormous red flag for us, indicating that this person doesn't understand the difference between historical and ...

Introduction. Everyone agrees that Darwinian evolution is a controversial topic. But not everyone agrees on why. Many advocates of Darwinian evolution promote the stereotype that the theory is controversial only because a small religious segment of society has social, religious, or political objections.
